PLEASE READ BEFORE ORDERING

Please print your full Name and Street Address, also City and State, in Capital Letters on all orders.

Because of ever-increasing postal costs, please add 45c on all plant orders amounting to $3.00 or less. On all orders of over $3.00, add 65c; west of the Mississippi, add 85c. Rather than increase our prices on individual plants to the point that would make your Violet hobby an expensive luxury, we have in many cases lowered our prices. Our greatly increased production of all good standard and new varieties has made this possible. All plants are grown at our greenhouses, with a capacity of over 200,000 plants.

When ordering, send a money order or a personal check. No C.O.D.'s, please.

To our Canadian customers: Secure an import permit from your Department of Agriculture and forward it to us with your order. Postage at your expense. All orders from outside the United States are sent Air Mail, postage at your expense.

If your order arrives damaged or crushed: Report immediately to your postal clerk or department and have a bad order report filled out. We can place no damage claim without it. Please be prompt in doing this on arrival of a damaged order. Send the report along with your complaint, and a prompt adjustment or replacement will be made. The postal department does not recognize any frozen claims. There is no insurance to protect a loss of this kind; only damaged and broken claims are honored.

We ship the year round when possible. During freezing weather orders are acknowledged and booked. Allow a reasonable time for delivery. All accessories are sent post-paid.

All plants are shipped from our greenhouses in 2-in. clay pots. They are young, vigorous, clean stock, 3 to 5 in. high. Please do not mistake our well-established growing plants in pots for rooted cuttings. We ship only plants that are ready to bloom. When ordering, state a second choice for each variety. With our large selection of varieties, certain popular kinds sometimes become scarce. Rather than ship another plant of our own choice, we prefer you to mention a second choice. Many times prices are subject to change without notice, and we may use these substitutes to give you the lower price benefit.

SUGGESTIONS

FOR THE CARE OF AFRICAN VIOLETS

The African Violet is one of the easiest house plants to grow in today's light, modern, thermostatically controlled homes. Its popularity is due in large part to its free blooming ability. Upon receiving a fresh order of plants, you are likely to have many questions about the best care that can be given to keep them in healthy blooming condition. May we make the following suggestions:

WHAT SIZE POT? WHAT SOIL?

Plants are usually received in 2-in. clay pots and should remain in them for 10 days or longer, until they have become adjusted to your home atmosphere. Plants bloom best when they are pot-bound. Thick-leaf varieties such as America, DuPont, Supreme, Amazon and Mammoth types should always be left in small pots for best results. African Violets rarely need pots any larger than the 4-in. squatty type. Many growers are highly successful with the plastic Wick-Fed pots. However, remember not to transplant to these pots until the plants are large enough. Allow the reservoir to dry out between waterings, and once a week or so give plants a drink from the top, between stems, to keep the salts in the soil from accumulating at the top of the pot and forming a crust.

Always use sterilized, properly blended soil for re-potting. Our certified soil, which we ship to customers, is the same that we use for our tremendous growing stock. Do not contaminate fresh, well-protected stock by using soil not suitably blended and sterilized.

TEMPERATURE AND EXPOSURE

A normal house temperature of 65° to 70° is most suitable. If your home is very hot and dry, we suggest that you grow Violets on pebble-filled trays, where you can create more moisture by keeping the pebbles moist at all times and by watering the plants individually at the top of the pot as needed.

North and west windows are best during the hot summer months, where plenty of light enters but not strong sunlight. South and east exposures give best results in winter. This induces blooming, since the sun is not very strong at that time of year.

WATERING

The best rule to follow is to water plants when the soil feels only slightly moist to the touch. Do not allow plants to become thoroughly dry before watering them. On the other hand, do not allow them to become waterlogged, for this encourages crown rot, especially during the hot summer months. Remember to use warm water, preferably rain water, distilled water or any that is free of chemicals. Frequency of watering depends upon size of pot, room temperature, humidity and exposure. Plants can be watered from top or bottom.

TO KEEP VIOLETS FREE OF PESTS AND DISEASE

This can best be done by using Optox Spray (20 drops to a pint of warm water), Kapsulate or the new, ready-to-use Antrol Bomb. Make a practice of using an insecticide at least once a month as a preventive. No leaf-spotting will occur if foliage is allowed to dry thoroughly before plants are placed in sun or light. You may find evening the most convenient time to spray; in normal house temperatures leaves of plants will be dry before morning.

Violets received from our greenhouses have been grown here under careful conditions to combat diseases. We are state and federal certified, and we keep in effect a constant fumigation program.

The pests that most often bother the home grower are mite and mealy-bugs. Both of these can be remedied in the early stages with the use of Optox Spray, Antrol Bomb or Sodium Selenate capsules (Kapsulate). If plants become too badly infested, it is best to discard them for the protection of other plants that are healthy. Springtails, which are a fine, thread-like pest, can best be controlled by using any preventive previously mentioned. Nematodes are small round worm-like animals that enter plants through roots, cause a swelling of the roots, stems or leaves and eventually result in an injury known as root knot. The best means of controlling them is by using sterilized soil to prevent contamination. Plants badly infested should be discarded.

REASONS FOR COMMON AILMENT: BUD DROP AND STEM ROT

When buds fall off or do not last long enough to develop, there may be a number of reasons: too dry an atmosphere—that is, lack of humidity; the effect of gas fumes; not enough sunlight and good air circulation; overwatering; extreme changes of temperature and drafts; leaving recently watered plants near a cold window overnight.

Stem rot is caused by fungi that enter the tissues of the plants and cause damage and death to cells. The only remedy for this type of rot is to use sterilized soil. And be careful not to overwater; waterlogged soil is the main reason for the attack by the fungi.

AFRICAN VIOLETS SHOULD BE FED

Plants should be fed at least twice every month. If Violets are expected to perform at their best, a plant food should be given them. A liquid food is perhaps the easiest to use. Liqua Vita is excellent, as it is simply added to the water. Complete directions are on every bottle. If you prefer a powdered food, Hyponex is a real favorite and is also very easy to use. Directions appear on every can. When preparing food for plants, mix only the amount to be used for one feeding. Both foods mentioned are also safe for other house plants.

Yours for more beautiful, healthy Violets,

Our greenhouses, with a capacity of over 200,000 plants, are devoted entirely to growing outstanding African Violets. This is not a side-line or a second crop at Tinari's. It is a specialty representing a life's work in growing the best in Violets and hybridizing and producing new varieties.

We extend a cordial invitation to you to visit our greenhouses. Our entire range is devoted exclusively to the growing of African Violets.

For your convenience we have assembled in one greenhouse groups of the many varieties we grow, in order to save you time and allow you to make variety comparison on sight. This showhouse offers you an excellent opportunity to become better acquainted with the new and standard varieties of your choice.

Our greenhouses and gardens are located in the picturesque valley of Bethayres, along the famous Pennypack Creek, 15 miles north of central Philadelphia, 3 miles east of Route 611 and 4 miles east of Willow Grove entrance to the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Open daily from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5 P.M. Evenings by appointment.
